

THE TWO SONS

Matthew 21:28-32

What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said 'Son go and work in the vineyard today.' And he answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, 'I go sir,' but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father? They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him.

Matthew 15:7-9

You hypocrites! Well, did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said: “This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”

A painting of two men in a forest. One man is in the foreground, seen from the back, wearing a blue jacket and holding a large, thick book. The other man is slightly behind him, also seen from the back, wearing a brown jacket. They are standing in a forest with trees showing autumn foliage in shades of orange, red, and yellow. The overall style is somewhat impressionistic with visible brushstrokes.

Matthew 6:33

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Proverbs 12:19

Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

A painting of two men in a forest. The man on the left is seen from the back, wearing a light-colored shirt, with his right hand resting on the left shoulder of the man on the right. The man on the right is also seen from the back, wearing a dark jacket. The background is a dense forest with vibrant autumn foliage in shades of orange, red, and yellow. The overall style is expressive and somewhat abstract, with visible brushstrokes and a textured appearance.

Colossians 3:9

Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with practices.

A painting of two men in a forest. One man is in the foreground, seen from behind, wearing a brown coat and holding a large, thick book. The other man is slightly behind him, also seen from behind, wearing a dark coat. They are standing in a forest with trees and foliage in shades of orange, yellow, and green. # 1 John 4:1

Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world.

1 Corinthians 10:12

The background of the slide features a large, vibrant, abstract painting with a mix of warm and cool colors, including oranges, yellows, reds, and blues. In the foreground, the backs of two men in dark suits are visible as they look towards the artwork. The overall style is artistic and contemplative.

Therefore, let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall.

1 Corinthians 3:18

The background of the slide features two men in suits, seen from behind, looking at a wall of colorful, abstract art. The art consists of various shapes and colors, including orange, red, yellow, and green, creating a vibrant and textured appearance. The men are positioned in the lower half of the frame, with their heads and shoulders visible. The overall scene suggests a professional or academic setting where the men are engaged in a discussion or presentation.

Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise.

Galatians 6:3

For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

Matthew 23:25-28

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean.

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness. So, you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

Jeremiah 17:9-10

A painting depicting two men in a forest. The man on the left is seen from the back, wearing a brown coat and a hat, with his hand resting on a wooden post. The man on the right is also seen from the back, wearing a blue coat and a hat, with his hand on his forehead, suggesting distress or deep thought. The background is a dense forest with vibrant autumn foliage in shades of orange, red, and yellow.

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately sick; who can understand it? I the Lord search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways
